

Israeli municipality decided on Sunday to freeze the demolition order against Silwan protesting tent. Freezing the order came after appeal which was presented attorney Ziad Qa'war. He said that the municipality ordered earlier the demolition of the tent on claims that it is vacant. The lawyer added, al-Bustan protesting tent is the forum for Palestinians of Jerusalem and an important tool to convey the voice of people. ♦ "The municipality attempt to silence the protesting voices in the city," he said.