

Settlement construction continues despite the international community call upon Israel for a freeze to enable the resumption of direct peace talks.

Photo Essay Archive